THE HOT L BALTIMORE

In a once-elegant hotel now worn by time, strangers become neighbours, neighbours become confidants, and small moments of humour and longing flicker against an uncertain future.

With turns funny, fragile, and deeply humane, this vivid ensemble piece reveals the hidden dreams of those the world too often overlooks, and the stubborn hope that keeps them going when everything else is slipping away.

A tender mosaic of outsiders and drifters, The Hot L Baltimore by Lanford Wilson is a bittersweet portrait of hope, heartbreak, and fragile human connection.

Presented by nineteen actors from The Oxford School of Drama, this is a great chance to watch emerging talent from a top UK drama school.
